

In the case of an injury, illness, or medical condition that prevents an employee from working for an extended period of time, i.e. over 7 consecutive days (disability, workman's compensation) please refer to the Medical Leaves of Absence section of the handbook.

Sick or personal time is not paid out upon an employee's termination, resignation, retirement, or other separation from employment.